Last Will and Testament

We, the members of the class of nineteen hundred and sixty-two, being sound in body and, for a rarity, sound in mind, and being desirous of showing our good will to those in connection with this institution, do hereby proclaim, publish, and make known this our Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE I

To our Principal, Mr. Brookbank, we leave students who will "Study, Study, Study."

ARTICLE II

To our Senior Teachers:

To Miss Holleman we leave our wise interpretations of Macbeth.

To Mr. Holder we leave all our secrets which he has overheard through his unique hearing ability.

ARTICLE III

To the faculty in general we leave halls still ringing with the sounds of our mischievous giggles.

ARTICLE IV

To the Juniors we leave the Library, where you'll find books filled with samples of our own handwriting.

To the Sophomores we leave the Gymnatorium where lectures directed at us still resound from the walls.

To the Freshmen we leave the Lunch Room—a place to get refueled for our favorite dance, the Twist.

ARTICLE V

As individuals, we leave certain abilities and tangible objects that we have valued, but need no longer:

I, STEVE GILMORE, will my front seat in Senior English to Al Clark.
